CHURCHES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH (UNITARIAN).

Hancock, Washington, and Temple streets.

Corner-stone laid June 11, 1827; dedicated Nov. 12, 1828; cost about $35,000, the last of which was paid in 1833. The doric pillars supporting the pediment are each of one piece, and are the first large shafts quarried in Quincy.

The remains of President John Adams (1735, 1826) and Abigail (Smith), his wife, lie in a granite tomb beneath the portico. This church also guards the remains of President John Quincy Adams (1763, 1848) and Louisa Catherine (Johnson), his wife. It also contains tablets to the memory of Rev. Peter Whitney and William Parsons Lunt, D. D.

A large chapel, with vestry and other rooms and conveniences, was built in 1889.

SCHOOLS.

ADAMS ACADEMY.

Adams Academy, Hancock Street, corner Dimnock, was founded by the generous and wisely bestowed munificence of Ex-President John Adams, who, in 1822, deeded to the town, in trust, over two hundred acres of land, the income to "be applied to the support of a school for the teaching of the Greek and Latin languages, and any other languages, arts, and sciences which a majority of the ministers, magistrates, lawyers, and physicians, inhabiting in the said town, may desire." The building occupies the site of John Hancock's birthplace, and was first opened September, 1872. Managers (elected by the town): Josiah P. Quincy, Peter Butler, Edward Norton, Charles A. Howland, Jason G. Witham, H. Evans Cotton. Supervisors of the Adams School and Temple Fund: Josiah P. Quincy, Edward Turner, John Q. Adams, Walter T. Babcock, Sigourney Butler. H. T. Whitman, Agent and Collector; William Everett, Master;

William R. Tyler, William T. Campbell, Walter E. Damon, Charles T. Billings, Assistants.
